	Materials are priced to ship in truckload quantities. One Time Utility cannot guarantee jobsite delivery dates/times. One Time Utility understands how critical delivery to the jobsite is and suggests the contractor to take delivery to their yard or a storage area when fabrication is completed and to then transport themselves to the jobsite when needed. This allows for more customer control over jobsite delivery. If early shipment of embeds or anchor bolts is required, and they cannot be shipped in a full load to the customer, the customer will be billed the total cost of the LTL amount or the partial load freight charge. It is the customer's responsibility to inform their One Time Utility Sales Rep of the customer's intended schedule. Customer must inform One Time Utility in writing about a potential back charge prior to the charge occurring. One Time Utility and Customer must come to a resolution and written approval by One Time Utility must be received before One Time Utility will agree to pay or be held liable for any back charge amounts.
